On Eve of Great Battle.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 20.—The war office confirms the report from Gunshu Pass that Field Marshal Oyama is on the eve of taking the general offensive, and no doubt is entertained here that General Linevitch will accept battle in his present positions. The general staff believes Oyama's advance was precipitated by the doubt regarding the issue of the coming naval battle between Admirals Rojestvensky and Togo. With an unbeaten army in front of him Oyama's position might be critical if his communications with Japan were interrupted even temporarily.

Dispatches from Harbin report a carnival of drunkenness and dissipation among the hangers-on of the rear army. Champagne at $10 a bottle is said to be flowing like rivers, dives are abundant and a multitude of sharpers and gamblers are reaping a rich harvest. The Emperor, at General Linevitch's request, has appointed a new provost marshalencral, and the commander-in-chief intends to wage a vigorous campaign to reatore order and institute more satisfactory conditions in the rear. EMPORIA, VA., May 20.—George Harrison, the night telegraph operator for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad at Free, just below Emporia, while under the influence of liquor, became engaged in an altercation with the day operator. A. S. Hudson, late last night, attacked the latter with a chair and later with a hammer.

Young Hudson, being only seventeen years of age and small of statue, fearing for his life, drow his revolver and fired four times at his assailant. Two shots struck Harrison in the thigh, the other penetrating the abdominal cavity.

Fortunately no vital spot was struck, and reports from the South Rocky Mount Hospital, where the wounded man was carried early this morning, state that the wounds appear to have done but little damage.

Harrison has been employed by the Const line as operator at intervals for six years, while young Hudson has been connected with the croad since February of this year.
